

MANHATTAN BEACH

DIVING IN FOR RECYCLING

Mira Costa High School students Natalie Hoag, above left, and Sam Sestanovich plow through Wednesday's school trash to find out what's recyclable on Thursday. Right, Principal Ben Dale and student Ryan Patel join in the search. The lunchtime trash audit event determined that 62 percent of the school's trash is recyclable and could be diverted away from a landfill.

BRAD GRAVERSON — STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

