

Giving Tuesday Donation Matching

If you have donated to Grades of Green at any point during the 2024 calendar year, you have the incredible opportunity to double your impact with the donation you have already made! This Giving Tuesday, discover if your company can match any donation you've made this year. In order to double your gift to students across the globe, please follow the following instructions:

1. Email jayneb@gradesofgreen.org
 - Subject the email: Corporate Donation Matching
 - Include in the body of your email: Name and email
2. Our team will reply with a receipt from the selected donation(s) you would like to match.
3. Send the receipt to your employer to match your donation.

That's it! By following these steps, you have doubled your impact to empower students and teachers across the globe to take environmental action!
